

New Furnishings Products for January 2024

It's no surprise the way staff and residents use Senior Living spaces has changed in recent years. This year, we're seeing top Senior Living manufacturers launch new products that were designed with durability, resident independence, and staff efficiency in mind.

Explore new products for 2024 in this guide and contact your Direct Supply representative for more information on any of the products featured.

The background of the image is a collage of various fabric swatches and design tools. In the top left, there are several rectangular fabric samples with different patterns and colors, including a blue and white geometric pattern, a blue and white floral pattern, and a blue and white striped pattern. In the top right, there is a piece of light-colored, textured fabric. In the bottom left, there are several colored pencils (blue, green, purple) and a piece of fabric with a blue and yellow pattern. In the bottom right, there is a paint palette with green and blue colors, and a small white card with a green design.

Fabrics

This year's fabric trends are a masterful blend of practicality and style. Expect durable, easy-to-clean materials with a touch of elegance. The spotlight is on cool tones and nature-inspired patterns, marrying function with contemporary design aesthetics.

Common Area & Dining Room

Many of this year's products follow the same trend:
Fostering community while maintaining cleanability and durability.

Communities are continuing to foster dedicated spaces for resident and family gatherings. Strategic design trends such as high-back chairs and products that promote cleanability allow for community to grow in a safe fashion.
